2009 Red Cross Red Crescent disaster risk reduction, food security/livelihoods and climate change adaptation mapping

This mapping captures only activities categorized specifically as DRR, food security/livelihoods and climate change adaptation. Other activities contributing to increased community safety and resilience, for example in the areas of health and care, water and sanitation, shelter, etc., while also contributing to DRR, are not included. Data was available for 19 National Societies working internationally, multi-lateral initiatives administered by the International Federation Secretariat and the Red Cross/Red Crescent Climate Centre. Only activities directly supporting national- and community-level DRR are included.

Many National Societies implement DRR independent of bi- and multi-lateral support. Also, not all National Societies working internationally provided data. The data is therefore incomplete, and increasingly so with each year backwards in time. Despite these limitations the mapping covers the major DRR donors, and care was taken to avoid potential double counting. Therefore the true DRR programming cannot be less than what is reported here.

Data descriptions and sources are provided at the end of this document.

Data descriptions

n/a = data not available

Estimated Beneficiaries: Based on the average global spending per beneficiary and the total spending in the particular country.

PNS, Fed & CC Present: Number of internationally operating National Societies, multi-lateral IFRC initiatives and the RCRC Climate Centre active in the country.

PNS, Fed & CC Progs: Number of programmes reported.

Focus Area Distribution: NS DP = National Society disaster preparedness; CBDRR = community-based disaster risk reduction (includes community-based disaster preparedness); FS & livelihood = Livelihoods and food security; CCA = climate change adaptation NS DP WPNS II (2005-2008): National Society disaster preparedness as self-assessed during Phase II of the Well-Prepared National Society process, 2005-2008. Categories (low, medium and high) are based on summed results from select questions (A.4.1, A.9, B.5, D.1.1, D.1.2, E.6, F.1.1, F.3, F.3.1, G.2). "Low" indicates a score within the lowest 33% of all reporting NS, etc.

Data sources

Country vulnerability description and sources

Disaster risk: Based on disaster mortality data, "Absolute" refers to average number of people killed per year, while "Relative" refers to average number of people killed per year per total population. The classes are based on a non-linear scale of 1-10. More information can be found on page 21 of:

ISDR (2009). Global Assessment Report on Disaster Risk Reduction. United Nations, Geneva, Switzerland. <http://www.preventionweb.net/english/hyogo/gar/>

HDI = Human Development Index: Maximum = 1, the higher the number, the more "developed" the country.

UNDP (2007). Human Development Report 2007/2008. United Nations Development Programme, New York, USA. <http://hdr.undp.org/en/>

Population living on less than USD 1.25 per day: Provided both as % of total population and total number living below USD 1.25/day, which has been estimated as the international poverty line.

World Bank (2008). 2008 World Development Indicators: Poverty Data Supplement. International Bank for Reconstruction and Development/The World Bank, Washington, D.C., USA. <http://www.worldbank.org/data>
